Maine Public Employees Retirement System

Service Retirement Application Package

This package contains everything you need to apply for Service Retirement Benefits.

As you prepare to retire, there are many decisions to manage. We encourage you to use the checklist (see inside cover) to make sure you have all the information MainePERS will need in order to process your retirement application. The items on the list may or may not apply to you, depending upon your individual circumstances.

What to Do Next

- Read the information. If you have any questions, we will be happy to work with you by phone, or to meet with you to discuss the specifics of your retirement.
- Decide on an effective date of retirement.
- Select a payment option.
- Complete and submit your Application for Service Retirement and associated paperwork, using the enclosed instructions. MainePERS will accept your retirement application once you are within a year of your effective date.

Your First Benefit Payment

MainePERS issues payments at the end of the month, for that month. You can expect your benefit payment to be deposited on or around the last business day of the month.

You can find a benefit payment schedule in the Retirees section of our web site.

Typically, you receive your first benefit payment in the month you retire. However, if we receive your application on or after your retirement effective date, you can expect to receive your first benefit payment the month following application. When you receive your first payment, it will include all months from your retirement effective date through the payment date. Filing your application more than 31 days after your termination date can result in the loss of MainePERS Group Life insurance coverage.

Note: You cannot change your decision to retire after you receive your first benefit payment.

Preliminary Benefits

If we are unable to decide your benefit amount in time for your first benefit payment, we will begin paying benefits to you on a preliminary basis. Preliminary Benefit payments are estimated payments based on the retirement option you select.

Once your benefit amount is final, MainePERS adjusts your first regular benefit payment to make up the difference between your preliminary and your actual retirement benefit.

If your service retirement benefit is subject to either a child support order or a qualified domestic relations order (a court order instructing MainePERS to pay all or part of your benefit to one or more “alternate payees,” as in a divorce settlement), you are not eligible for Preliminary Benefit payments.

If you are not eligible for a Preliminary Benefit, your first benefit payment most likely will occur two or more months after you retire. MainePERS must wait for your final payroll information from your former employer before we can calculate your regular retirement payment. Your first benefit payment will include a retroactive amount for the number of months that you went without a benefit payment.

Direct Deposit

MainePERS requires that your retirement payments be deposited directly to either your savings or checking account. MainePERS cannot process your retirement application until we have a completed direct deposit form signed and dated by you.

If you select benefit payment option five (5), your beneficiary also must sign and date a separate direct deposit form, even if you and your beneficiary have a joint account.

We must receive your direct deposit form before the 15th of the month in order to issue a payment in that month. If an error occurs in the transit routing number or account number, the direct deposit will not take effect until the error is corrected.

Advice of Deposit

Once your benefit payments are electronically transferred, you will receive an advice of deposit whenever your net benefit amount changes by $1.00 or more. We will also send you an advice each December, which will include important year-end totals and information.

Health Insurance

MainePERS does not administer any health insurance benefits for retirees.

If you are not sure about what health insurance benefits you may have when you retire, please contact your employer’s personnel or business office or your union/professional organization to find out more. Learn how your health insurance coverage works before terminating employment or going off your employer’s payroll in order to avoid a lapse in, or loss of, insurance coverage.

In most cases MainePERS can, with your authorization, deduct health insurance premiums from your service retirement benefit payments. The State of Maine pays a portion of some retirees' health insurance premiums. MainePERS will work with the Division of Employee Health & Benefits, the state agency that administers health insurance, to deduct premiums from your benefit payments. If you have questions regarding whether the State will pay a portion of your premiums, contact Employee Health & Benefits at 1-800-422-4503.

Retiree Life Insurance

MainePERS administers group life insurance for participating members. If your MainePERS life insurance premiums and coverage are current when you retire, you will be eligible for one or more options for continued coverage:

- Basic Insurance at no cost
- Porting to another group term insurance
- Conversion to individual whole life

Basic Group Life Insurance

MainePERS Group Life Insurance coverage ends on your date of termination from employment, subject to a 31-day grace period. Your basic coverage will continue into retirement at no cost to you if:

- Your effective date of retirement is within this 31 day grace period
- Your retirement application is received within this same period
- You have participated in group life insurance for at least 10 years

Your individual level of basic life insurance coverage in retirement is your Average Final Compensation (AFC) at point of retirement. Usually this is the average of your three highest years of earnings. Basic life insurance for retirees does reduce 15% each year to a minimum of 40% of your Average Final Compensation or $2500 if greater.

SAMPLE OF CONTINUED BASIC GROUP LIFE INSURANCE BENEFIT SCHEDULE:

Average Final Compensation: $38,000

FROM	THROUGH	AMOUNT
7/1/2015	6/30/2016	$38,000 (full coverage)
7/1/2016	6/30/2017	$32,300 (85% of 38,000)
7/1/2017	6/30/2018	$26,600 (70% of 38,000)
7/1/2018	6/30/2019	$20,900 (55% of 38,000)
7/1/2019	There-after	$15,200 (40% of 38,000)

Supplemental and Dependent Life Insurance

Porting to another group life insurance or conversion to an individual life insurance policy are two other options that may be available to you as a MainePERS retiree. Check out the handout in red lettering titled: Comparing Portability and Conversion Life Insurance Options included in this retirement application packet.

Beneficiary Information

You may have beneficiary designations on file with MainePERS that apply to different types of benefits. One is for your life insurance and the other is for your pre-retirement benefits (benefits which would apply should your death occur before your effective date of retirement). The beneficiary(ies) named on the retirement application will not be official until after your effective date of retirement.

Changing a Beneficiary After You Retire

Option 1: You may change your beneficiary designation at any time.

Option 2-8 Spouse/Former Spouse as Sole Beneficiary: If you choose any of Options 2 through 8, and designate your spouse or former spouse as your sole beneficiary, you may change your beneficiary designation only if:

- Option 2-5 only: Your spouse dies and you remarry.
- Option 2-8: You are divorced, or get divorced, and your spouse agrees to give up all rights to being your beneficiary.

Changing your beneficiary to your new spouse will result in a change in the amount of your retirement benefit. MainePERS will advise you about the revised benefit amount before you make a final decision. You can then decide whether to change your beneficiary.

Option 2-8 Other: If you choose any of Options 2 through 8, and designate someone other than your spouse or former spouse as your sole beneficiary, you may make a one-time change in your beneficiary designation after you retire; however:

1. The beneficiary that you named at retirement must still be alive.
2. Your new beneficiary's monthly payment will be the same amount as the original beneficiary.

Beneficiary payment amounts are based upon your age and the age of the original beneficiary. Payments to a new beneficiary cannot exceed what was expected to have been paid to the original beneficiary. So, if you name a new beneficiary, it is possible that person will not receive a benefit for his or her lifetime. MainePERS can tell you when the benefit to a proposed new beneficiary will end. If the new beneficiary becomes deceased prior to that date, benefits stop immediately

You cannot change your payment option after MainePERS issues your first retirement benefit payment.

Social Security and MainePERS Benefits

If you are eligible to receive Social Security retirement benefits either because you worked in a Social Security covered job or because your deceased spouse did, the amount of your Social Security benefit may be affected by your MainePERS retirement benefit.

The Social Security provisions at issue are the Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) (Social Security benefits for your own work) and the Government Pension Offset (GPO) (Social Security benefits as a spouse or widow(er)). Current informational publications regarding these offsets can be found on the Social Security Administration (SSA) website:

WEP: www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10045.html

GPO: www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10007.html

Neither Maine law, nor MainePERS rules cause the effects of these provisions. They are based on federal law administered by the Social Security Administration (SSA). To obtain information about any effect from receiving MainePERS retirement benefits on your Social Security benefits, please contact the Social Security Administration. You can locate the SSA office nearest you by looking in the local phone book under "United States Government - Health and Human Services." We recommend that you work with a Claims Representative from your local SSA office, or you can contact SSA toll-free at 1-800-772-1213.

INSTRUCTIONS

Application for Service Retirement Benefits¹

Please type or print (in ink) all information. Do not strike out, write over or white out any entry on the application form. We must receive a clean form from you. If we receive an application that has been altered in any way, we will consider it void and require a new application. If you make a mistake on the form, you can get a replacement from the Forms section of our web site or by contacting the Retirement System.

Member Data

Social Security Number: Enter your nine-digit Social Security Number.

Member Name: Write your complete name, including any identifying titles, such as Junior or Senior or a middle name or initial. If you change your name after you submit your retirement application, you must notify MainePERS using the Member/Benefit Recipient Data Update Form (MM-0002)².

Mailing Address: Give your complete mailing address as MainePERS will use it to send you information about your benefit payments. If your mailing address changes after you submit your retirement application, notify MainePERS using the Member/Benefit Recipient Data Update Form (MM-0002)².

Marital Status: Select the marital status that applies to you or will apply to you on the effective date of your retirement (described below). If you are widowed or divorced and have not remarried, select “single”. If your marital status changes between the time you complete your retirement application and your effective date of retirement, you must submit written notice of the change directly to MainePERS.

Home Telephone Number: List your home telephone number, including area code, so MainePERS staff may contact you with questions or information about your retirement application or benefits.

Home Email Address: List your home or primary email address you would like us to have on file.

Termination Date: Your termination date is typically the last day you work in MainePERS-covered employment. If you are employed in more than one MainePERS-covered position prior to the effective date of your retirement, you must terminate all MainePERS-covered positions in order to be eligible to draw your service retirement benefit.

The examples in this section represent typical circumstances. There can be situations similar to those used in the examples that would result in different termination dates. If you are unsure of the date you should use as your termination date, please contact MainePERS.

If you take vacation time immediately prior to retiring, your termination date can be the last vacation day for which you are compensated by your employer.

Example: If your last day of actual work is the 15th of the month, but you remain on payroll using accrued vacation time through the 30th of the month, your termination date is the 30th.

Paid vacation time is not the same as payment you receive for unused leave time.

Example: If your last day of actual work is the 15th of the month and you receive payment from your employer for vacation time that you had available to you upon termination but you did not remain on your employer’s payroll or receive benefits (e.g., health insurance) from your employer after the 15th of the month, your termination date is the 15th.

¹This form can be requested by contacting MainePERS or downloaded from www.mainebers.org (see Forms).

²This form can be requested by contacting MainePERS or downloaded from www.mainebers.org (see Forms).

Special Note for Teacher Members

If you are a teacher, your termination date may not necessarily be the final day of your contract. Usually, a teacher member's termination date is the last teaching/working day of the school year.

Example: If a classroom teacher is under contract from September 1st through August 31st, teaches his/her last day on June 20th, and resigns from employment at the end of the school year, the termination date is June 20th.

Effective Date of Retirement: For members whose retirement immediately follows their termination from MainePERS-covered employment, the effective date of retirement is the first of the month following the termination date (as described above).

Example: An active member whose termination date is June 15th will have a Retirement Effective Date of July 1st (providing s/he met his/her retirement plan eligibility requirements at the time of termination).

For inactive members who had vested status when they terminated MainePERS-covered employment, the effective date of retirement is the first of the month following the date on which you reach your normal retirement age (NRA).

Example: An inactive, vested member whose NRA is 62 and whose 62nd birthday is on October 20th will have a Retirement Effective Date of November 1st.

Member Election

You cannot change your payment option after MainePERS issues your first retirement benefit payment.

Option Selection: Check the box next to the option that you select. Refer to your estimate of benefits and the descriptions of the payment options for an explanation of the options as they pertain to you.

Options 4 and 8: "Detail your chosen payment plan" by writing the percentage to be paid to your surviving beneficiary (e.g. 33%)

Option 5: "Detail your chosen payment plan" by writing the percentages to be paid to you and your beneficiary (e.g., 80%/20%).

If you need further information on any of the payment options, contact Retirement Services prior to completing your retirement application.

Retirement Incentive Question: Indicate whether or not you decided to retire because of a retirement incentive (monetary or otherwise) offered by your employer.

Beneficiary Designation

Full Benefits: If you select this option do not designate a retirement beneficiary. Full Benefits does not have a beneficiary provision. All payments will cease on the first day of the month following the date of your death.

Special Plan: If you have elected Special Plan, only name a beneficiary if the special plan provides for an ongoing benefit to a beneficiary. Special Plan Option is available only to those members retiring under a Special Plan offered to specific MainePERS members (e.g. State Police, Game Wardens). If you are not sure whether or not these special plan options are available to you, contact the Retirement Services staff at MainePERS.

If you select any of retirement benefit payment Options 1 through 8, you need to designate a beneficiary to receive some level of benefit upon your death. Under any of these options, we first calculate your benefit based on the Full Benefit option, then adjust your full benefit amount. The reduction from your full benefit depends on which option you select.

(1) If you select Option 1, the reduction from your full benefit amount is based on your age when you retire and on the accumulated contributions in your account when you retire.

(2) If you select any one of Options 2 through 8, the reduction from your full benefit amount is based on your age and your beneficiary's age when you retire, and the benefit amount that your beneficiary will receive when you die.

If you select any of retirement benefit Options 1 through 4, you may choose to designate more than one beneficiary.

(1) If you select Option 1, the number of beneficiaries that you designate will not impact the amount by which your full benefit is reduced. This is because the reduction from your full benefit amount under this option is not based on whom you designate as your beneficiary.

(2) If you select Option 2, 3 or 4, the number of beneficiaries that you designate will directly impact the amount by which your full benefit is reduced. This is because the reduction from your full benefit amount under any of these options is based in part on the age of each beneficiary and the level of benefit to be paid to each surviving beneficiary upon your death. Thus, each additional beneficiary you designate will increase the amount by which your full benefit is reduced.

If the beneficiary(ies) that you designate on your retirement application is/are different from that/those used in the calculation of your estimated benefits, contact Retirement Services at MainePERS to learn the impact on your benefit.

1. Beneficiary's Name: Enter your first beneficiary's complete name, including any identifying titles, such as Junior or Senior or a middle name or initial. If your beneficiary's name changes after you submit your retirement application, you must notify MainePERS using the Member/Benefit Recipient Data Update Form (MM-0002)¹.

Mailing Address: Provide your beneficiary's complete mailing address as this information is needed to send important information about benefit payments and related information. If your beneficiary's mailing address changes after you submit your retirement application, s/he must submit written notice of the change directly to the Maine Public Employees Retirement System using the Member/Benefit Recipient Data Update form (MM-0002)¹.

Social Security Number: Enter your beneficiary's nine-digit Social Security Number.

Relationship: Indicate your beneficiary's relationship to you.

Example: Spouse

NOTE: If you choose to designate more than one retirement beneficiary, indicate that additional beneficiaries have been designated by writing "additional beneficiaries designated" in the beneficiary designation section.
